

K-Love Radio utilizes the low power FM translators to cover local areas that could not otherwise receive the signal. Many in our community truly benefit from this unique national music broadcast. I urge you to let them continue to broadcast via the low power transponders.